Below it, there is a navigation bar with links for Students, Parents, Teachers, Media, Partners, and About Us. The page is titled "Press Releases" and shows a date of "September 25, 2013". The main content area contains a press release titled "Student development teams - Enhancing Quality Of Student Experience In All Schools". The press release text is as follows:

- 1 The Ministry of Education (MOE) will support all primary and secondary schools to form student development teams by 2016 to focus on the quality of student experience in all schools.
- 2 These student development teams will oversee the development of each student as he experiences the holistic education programmes designed for him, including the core academic and student development programmes, the Applied Learning programme and the Learning for Life programme.
- 3 Year Heads will oversee all programmes and matters relating to the holistic development of students in a given level. For instance, the Year Head of Secondary 1 will oversee the transition of Secondary 1 students from a primary school environment to a secondary school environment, while the emphasis in the other years could be on leadership development opportunities and exploring post-secondary education and future career possibilities. Year Heads will work with class form teachers of that level to provide stronger socio-emotional support for our students and coordinate efforts among teachers teaching a particular level - this will better ensure a more coherent educational

Overview

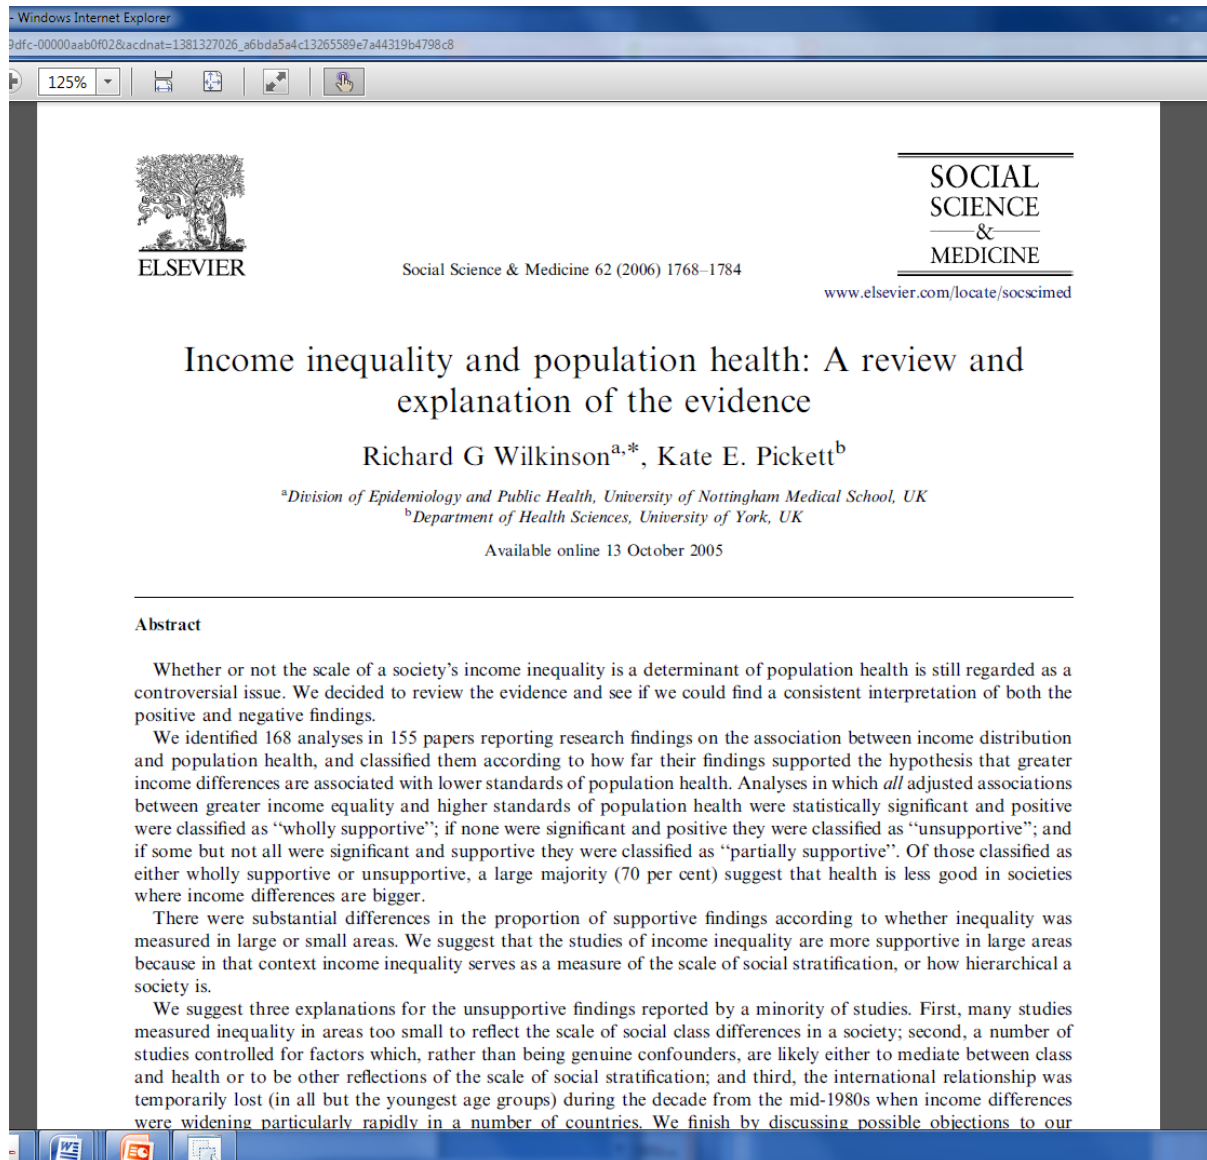

Universal health coverage ensures everyone has access to the health services they need without suffering financial hardship as a result. In December 2012, a UN resolution was passed encouraging governments to move towards providing universal access to affordable and quality health care services. As countries move towards it, common challenges are emerging -- challenges to which research can help provide answers.

The World health report: research for universal health coverage focuses on the importance of research in advancing progress towards universal health coverage. In addition, it identifies the benefits of increased investment in health research by low- and middle-income countries using case studies from around the world, and proposes ways to further strengthen this type of research.
